

Fantastic father and son duo! Their time keeping was impeccable, and their workmanship was faultless. I am in love with the floors they laid for me, and have comments about them all the time! They were polite, tidy and reasonable tradesman, a bit more expensive than their counterparts, they are worth their costing. I have already recommended them to family and friends and look forward to using them again shortly to build my porch.

Alia Arain