

" Prior to renting my apartment I hired Monte Construction for renovation work requiring re-painting and repair of some quite tricky plasterboard as well a more substantial job of changing a bath and tiling a wall. They did a fantastic job very quickly, even over Christmas and I was very impressed with the quality of the finish and the sturdy work in the bathroom. I would recommend Monte Construction to anyone interested in a quality job well done. "

Ersel